2023

Student Voting Results

The Student Governmental Affairs Program has compiled data from students across the USA during 2023. These results serve as a guide to how America's youth feels about today's pressing issues.

Question	Yes	No	Undecided
Should Congress raise the federal minimum wage?	50%	39%	11%
Should Congress pass the "Secure the Border Act of 2023" to limit illegal immigration?	55%	28%	17%
Should Congress pass a bill to prevent states from banning the sale of gas-powered cars?	63%	27%	10%
Should the President have the authority to "forgive" student loan debt?	38%	51%	11%
Should Congress require automakers to offer AM radio in their vehicles?	44%	46%	10%
Should Congress pass a Medicare for All national health care program?	49%	40%	11%
Should Congress set term limits for future Supreme Court justices?	61%	32%	7%
Should welfare recipients be drug tested?	58%	33%	9%
Should Congress pass legislation to reduce the workweek from 40 to 32 hours?	24%	66%	10%
Should Congress pass legislation to block the government from banning gas stoves?	61%	28%	11%
Should Congress pass the Dream Act to allow dreamers to become U.S. citizens?	56%	29%	15%
Should U.S. taxpayers fund universal child care for working families?	40%	46%	14%
Should Congress pass H.R.21 to curb the ability to tap the nation's petroleum reserve?	48%	34%	18%
Should Congress make Washington, D.C. the 51st state?	36%	50%	14%
Should Congress pass legislation to ban TikTok in the U.S.?	25%	59%	16%
Should the federal government regulate cryptocurrency?	42%	39%	19%

● Yes   ● No   ● Undecided

Think it Through

1. Why is it important to study the issues?

2. Are there generational differences among voters? If so, on which issues?

3. Does voting make a difference? How?

SGAP
STUDENT GOVERNMENTAL
AFFAIRS PROGRAM